

Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge named "Best Lodge or Lakeshore Resort"

DEERWOOD, Minn. – 108-year-old Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge has been chosen as "Best Lodge or Lakeshore Resort" by Minnesota Meetings & Events Magazine.

In accepting the award in behalf of all our employees, Chris Ruttger, fourth generation operator of Ruttger's, said: "We are honored by this award. The entire Ruttger's family – our staff, our guests, our friends – continue to make Ruttger's into something special. Our secret is simple: We never try to be anything other than what we are – a family-run resort that caters to families, conference groups and golfers."

Nominations for the award come from the readers of Minnesota Meetings & Events Magazine, who include meeting and conference professionals, hotel and resort industry representatives and hospitality suppliers from across the state of Minnesota.

Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge is situated less than two hours north of the Twin Cities, on 400 acres of lakeshore, just 20 minutes east of Brainerd. Amenities include first-class hospitality, fine food, and championship golf course and convention center.
